WSOP CIRCUIT 2018-19 EVENT REPORT

Circuit Stop:	Coconut Creek (Coral Spgs., FL)	Date:	13 February 2019
Event:	No-Limit Hold'em Six-Handed	Entries:	178
Buy-in:	$600	Prizepool:	$91,670

RAFFAELLO LOCATELLI WINS EVENT NLHE 6-MAX RING

Prior International Circuit ring winner earns $25,667 in Event #7 win

Raffaello Locatelli found himself heads-up against one of the giants of the WSOP Circuit tour on Wednesday in Event #7, $600 No-Limit Hold'em Six-Handed. Locatelli was matched against nine-time ring winner Martin Ryan of Trinidad and Tobago, who had won nine rings in just the past two years. The two started with almost equal stacks, and if Locatelli was the underdog, he didn't show it, quickly eliminating Ryan to earn his own second career ring.

Locatelli, 52, is a native of Rome, Italy who now lives in New York City, where he works in finance on behalf of a venture-capital fund. His work takes him around the globe, and when he travels, he tries to schedule himself into large poker events when he can. Two years ago he won an International Circuit ring in Cannes, France, winning a high-roller event at asino Barriere, and today he repeated the feat in taking down Circuit Coconut Creek's short-handed event.

MEET THE LATEST WSOP CIRCUIT RING WINNER

Name:	Raffaello Locatelli	Age:	52
Nationality:	Italian	Profession:	Venture financier
Birthplace:	Rome, Italy	WSOP Bracelets:	0
Current Residence:	New York, New York	Previous WSOP Circuit Rings:	1

DIRECT LINKS

FULL RESULTS
RAFFAELLO LOCATELLI'S OFFICIAL WSOP PLAYER PROFILE
OFFICIAL WINNER PHOTO