THIS IS HOW IT ALL BEGAN

In 2012, at the Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino, businessmen, card sharps and philanthropists each paid $1,000,000 to participate in the highest stakes poker game on the planet where the winner – Antonio Esfandiari – walked away with $18,346,673, the largest single prize in tournament poker history, and the most coveted trophy in gaming, a World Series of Poker championship bracelet.

ONE DROP, a charitable organization dedicated to improving access to safe water for all and initiated by Cirque du Soleil founder Guy Laliberté, received $5,533,328 through an 11.1% allotment from each buy-in.

The BIG ONE for ONE DROP has really become the poker event to end all poker events...

AND IT'S ONLY THE BEGINNING!

THE BIG ONE FOR ONE DROP IS BACK

The World Series of Poker and ONE DROP announce the return of The BIG ONE for ONE DROP, a $1 million buy-in tournament capped at a maximum of 56 players and the most significant charity initiative in poker history.

The BIG ONE for ONE DROP is a one-of-a-kind poker tournament featuring a $1,000,000 buy-in – the highest buy-in ever in live-tournament poker history. This High Roller Championship is hosted by the World Series of Poker to benefit ONE DROP and is open to anyone age 21 or older with the means to buy-in. This tournament is the most significant charity initiative in poker history. Funds will be directed to ONE DROP's projects around the world to provide much needed access to safe water.

A roster of the world's most affluent poker professionals, philanthropists, business executives, and satellite qualifiers are expected to participate in this three-day tournament that will begin on June 29, 2014, last three days and feature national television coverage.

ABOUT ONE DROP

WSOP'S OFFICIAL CHARITABLE PARTNER

ONE DROP — an initiative of Cirque du Soleil Founder Guy Laliberté — strives to ensure that water is accessible to all, today and forever.

Water is the most critical challenge facing the 21st century. And water is everyone's business. All facets of society need to be brought to the table to solve the world's water access and management challenges. Investing in water projects is good, but if we want to stop throwing money at the problem, investing in sustainable water and management projects that promote self-reliance is even better.

Using a one-of-a-kind sustainable intervention model, ONE DROP develops innovative water access and management projects which promote self-reliance in disadvantaged, rural and semi-rural regions of Central America, India and West Africa. Since its inception, ONE DROP has transformed the lives of 300,000 human beings.

The partnership between ONE DROP and the WSOP has raised a total of $7 million so far from a combination of The BIG ONE for ONE DROP in 2012, the ONE DROP High Rollers and the Little One for ONE DROP in 2013. $7 million can allow ONE DROP to provide safe water to more than 70,000 people in one location such as Honduras, El Salvador or Burkina Faso.

And it's only the beginning, as Antonio Esfandiari learned on his visit to ONE DROP projects in Central America. In fact, he realized he was not the only winner of the 2012 tournament.

"AFTER WINNING THE BIG ONE FOR ONE DROP, I TRAVELLED TO SEE ONE DROP'S PROJECTS WITH MY OWN EYES. THEIR INITIATIVES ARE NOT JUST ABOUT GIVING ACCESS TO WATER, THEY ARE ALSO ABOUT GIVING HOPE FOR A BRIGHTER FUTURE!"

- ANTONIO ESFANDIARI
