Total Prize Pool: $54,900 November 12-13, 2013

Wes Monico Wins the Sixth Event at Bossier City 24-year old Sugar Land, TX native earns his first Circuit ring.

Bossier City, LA (November 13, 2013) – The Bossier City Circuit series has been a hotbed of first time Circuit ring winners. The trend continued today as Wes Monico has captured the victory in the $365 No-Limit Hold 'em Event #6.

The 24-year old from Sugar Land, TX pocketed $14,275 and the gold Circuit ring for his win.

The sixth ring event at the Horseshoe Bossier City drew 183 entrants. The fast paced action on Day 1's continued, as there were only 13 players remaining at the conclusion of the first day of play.

Cyrus Jannesari led the field into Day 2 with 421,000, more than double his closest competitor. Monico entered Day 2 fourth in chips. It took just three hours for Monico and Jannesari to wipe out the rest of the field and start heads-up play.

Monico battled back from a substantial chip deficit heads-up to capture the title and his first Circuit ring.

"I am going to play as many of the ring events that I can now," Monico said after his win. "I want to lock up that seat to the National Championship."

He definitely has a shot now, as this victory puts Monico in a six-way tie for the Casino Championship points lead with six ring events remaining.

Final table results are as follows:

1st - WESLEY MONICO SUGAR LAND, TX $14,275

2nd - CYRUS JANNESARI HOUSTON, TX $8,817

3rd - JHONNY DONNELLY DALLAS, TX $6,367
