He may be known as a Southern California cash game pro, but now Todd Bui will be known by another title--gold bracelet winner.

Bui, who only plays a handful of tournaments a year, defeated a seasoned veteran and bracelet winner in his own right, Captain Tom Franklin, to take the title and the $124,510 first place payday in the $1,500 Limit 2-7 Triple Draw event. Remarkably, this was Bui's first-ever tournament win.

"It means a lot," Bui said of the bracelet. "This is actually my very first tournament that I've ever won, period, and it just happened to be a World Series of Poker event. It meant a lot because I always thought, 'When would I win my first one?' but it is hard when you only play two, three, four a year, you know?"
