Brandon Fish Wins Council Bluffs $580 Event

Kearney, Neb. pro finds success on his home turf, earns his second ring and $17,078.

Event 6 winner John Reading finishes third, takes Casino Championship points lead through nine events.

Council Bluffs, Iowa (April 17, 2015) — Brandon Fish of Kearney, Neb. earned the second ring of his young career at Horseshoe Casino in Council Bluffs, Iowa Friday night. The victory came in Event 9 of the property's World Series of Poker Circuit, a $580 no-limit hold'em tournament, and earned Fish $17,078 as well as 50 points toward the Casino Championship. Fish, who first carded gold during a 2012 Harrah's Atlantic City re-entry tournament, came out on top of a 122-player field in Iowa to take a head of steam into the series-ending Main Event.

"[It feels] just as sweet [as the first ring] – maybe event better because I have all my friends here from Omaha," the Nebraskan said.

Event 9 played out alongside Flight A of the $1,675 Main Event. Fish needed just two hours of Day 2 play to make his way through the five-player restart and don a follow-up gold trophy. Rather than parlay his good fortune into a Flight A buy in, Fish practiced some patience and opted to wait until Saturday's Flight B to try his luck in the championship.

"I feel like I'm going to keep the 'A' game going," Fish said of his Main Event hopes. "I feel like I should make a pretty deep run."

Joining Fish at the Event 9 finale was a talented group of players including Andrew Robinson (9th), Michael Sanders (8th), Aaron Frei (6th), last year's WSOP Main Event 206th-place finisher Matthew Hruska and the new Casino Championship points leader John Reading (3rd). Reading's deep run complemented his Event 6 victory and topped his points total through nine events at an even 80. He holds a slight edge over the competition with three points-eligible events remaining.

Also making his second final table appearance of the Council Bluffs series was Fish. Fish finished 8th in Event 2 and registered the $580 with no shortage of confidence. The online tournament pro had recently taken some time away from the game and returned to his home casino with a clear head.

"I felt like the time off did me some good and I was playing 'A' poker," Fish said of his play. "It was a little disappointing after I got 8th in the second event, but still felt like I was due to do something good. I felt like I was playing my 'A' game, so here we are."

Fish, a tournament pro, is 29 years old and resides in Kearney, Neb. His Event 9 victory marks his 19th Circuit cash, second gold ring win and moves him over $100,000 in career Circuit earnings.

Event 9 was the ninth of 12 gold ring events on the WSOP Circuit schedule at Horseshoe Council Bluffs. The $580 no-limit hold'em event attracted 122 players. The total prize pool came to $61,000 and the top 15 finishers were paid.

The tournament began Thursday, April 16 at 12 p.m. and Day 1 wrapped following Level 21 (~2 a.m.). Day 2 resumed Friday at 1 p.m. with five players remaining. Action concluded toward the beginning of Level 24 (~3 p.m.).
