Ting Ho is the Final Gold Ring Winner at Harveys Lake Tahoe

Ting Ho defeats Mark "Bonsai" Bonsack heads up to earn her first gold ring.

Stateline, Nev. (November 9, 2015) -- Ting Ho has outlasted 122 players, including her boyfriend, and gold ring winner, Rex Clinkscapes, to win the final event of the 2015 Harveys Lake Tahoe series. Both Ho and Clinkscapes had busted the Main Event. They hopped in this final event for a little bit of fun. It became even more fun for them when they were moved to the same table.

"Both he and I busted the Main, so we were just screwing around. He decided this tournament he was going to bust me," said Ho. "We were at the same table and he tried everything he could to bust me, but then the table broke, so he didn't get that opportunity."

It was a good thing Clinkscapes didn't bust Ho, because she went on to win the tournament, earn her first gold ring and the top prize of $10,249. Clinkscapes was the happiest person in the room when the final river card hit and Ting won. He said that he was even happier then when he wins a tournament, so ultimately he wanted to bust her early, but ended up loving the outcome much more.

Ho began Day 2 second in chips out of eight remaining players. She made it all the way down to heads-up play and her opponent was two-time gold ring winner, Mark Bonsack. Bonsack already had a runner-up finish this series and was hungry for a victory. Ho overcame a 2:1 chip lead to beat Bonsack heads up.

"I am so happy because I wanted to get a ring for my dad," said Ting. "I think he will be really happy."

Ting is headed home to see her nieces and nephews and then she is most likely off to Planet Hollywood for the next stop on the Circuit.
