Wilfredo Dinio Builds Massive Stack, Never Looks Back, Wins 1st Ring

Baltimore, MD (31 March 2016) - The Big O event that ran Wednesday night at 5 pm drew 125 entrants and they didn't quite reach a final table on Day 1. Nine players returned with Wilfredo Dinio holding a massive chip lead, he never relinquished his advantage and won his first ring for $11,621.

"Finally, I win. I've been playing more than ten years - cash games mostly,' Dinio said. "I used to live in Vegas for the poker, but then I moved here. I played a lot of Big O in the past but now mostly Hold'em."

"I usually play any big tournament between Nevada, Los Angeles, the World Series," he added. "I used to play a big tournament every weekend."

"I wasn't worried about losing, I had so many chips," Dinio added. "I used to play Big O on the Internet all the time. You've got to play tight and only good hands win. I didn't bluff, had lots of good hands and I would trap. I check, they bet and I put them all in."

Dinio defeated Andrew Blum in heads-up match that only lasted several hands. Darius Studdard just made the final table, collecting his third cash in the Series and Michael Cooper picked up another cash finishing in 14th place.

Dinio is semi-retired in Maryland and has seven children.
