Matthew Krier Wins First Ever Tournament and Circuit Ring at Planet Hollywood

Denver native wins first ever tournament and Circuit ring in Las Vegas

It was an exciting day for Matthew Krier, winner of Event #12 at the Planet Hollywood Circuit stop in Las Vegas. This two-day event brought back 15 players on Day 2 and Krier topped an overall field of 176 entries for a prize pool of $52,800.

Krier took down his first ever tournament in this event. "I've made seven or eight final tables. I finally won one" said a smiling Krier. When asked how he felt to win his first ring he said, "It was fun and exciting. This was my first outright win."

Although Krier loves to ski, hike, climb and play soccer, he is most definitely passionate about poker. "I am predominantly a cash game player, but sometimes dabble in playing live" continued Krier.
