GREGORY KOLO CLAIMS 2ND CIRCUIT RING

Kolo's single day of work brings him $35,280.

WSOP Circuit regular Gregory Kolo has struck Circuit gold for the second time in a two-month span, winning Event #3: No-Limit Hold'em. Kolo's second career ring came in a fast-paced, 20-minute-level event that drew 560 entrants as part of a packed-house Saturday in Cherokee.

Kolo's winner's check of $35,280 is the third largest of his WSOP career and pushes those career earnings over $400,000. Kolo's largest career WSOP payday remains the $169,225 he collected for winning PLO bracelet gold in the 2014 WSOP.

Kolo admitted running well as he came from well behind to grab the win, and he has his eyes set on both the Global Casino Championship and the WSOP later this year.
