MICHAEL LECH WINS 6TH CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT 5

Poker pro from Alma, AR beats a good friend heads up in just four hands to win the title

After just four hands of heads-up play, Michael Lech won Event #5: $400 No-Limit Hold'em 6-Handed for $19,156 and his 6th career World Series of Poker Circuit ring. Lech topped a field of 215 entries, earning himself the bulk of the $70,950 prize pool. "It feels great," said a sheepish Lech. He is fresh off a win and second-place finish in the WSOP Circuit Main Event in St. Maarten and is happy to win another ring in New Orleans.

From being introduced to poker by his Grandma, and then battling with the best on the Circuit, Lech is certainly a force to be reckoned with. When asked about what motivates him to stay in the game, Lech said, "It's (poker) growing everywhere. Gives me a reason to travel and see new places, meet new people. It's great."
