LARSON GOES BACK-TO-BACK TO EARN 3RD AND 4TH RINGS

David Larson wins two circuit rings in 24-hours; Four in calendar year

David Larson just accomplished what few have ever done, win two WSOP Circuit rings in one day. In just 24-hours, Larson won Event #7 $400 No-Limit Hold'em, late-registered Event #9: $250 No-Limit Hold'em, bagged the Day 1 chip lead and came back hours later to dominate another Final Table to win Event #9 $250 No-Limit Hold'em. Over that span Larson has bested a total of 303 entries, earning $20,194 in the process.

"Today I felt more pressure because I won yesterday but also people were afraid of me because I won yesterday. People definitely played a little more conservative today so it was harder for them to give-up their chips and yesterday people were a lot more splashy."

Not only has Larson joined an exclusive club of 55 players to ever win four rings, he has done it in one calendar year. The Las Vegas, Nevada resident won a $400 No-Limit Hold'em Monster Stack event in August and follow it up a month later winning a $400 Pot-Limit Omaha event at Thunder Valley in September.

The former software engineer is having the time of his life at Choctaw, a stop that he was never planning on making. He was traveling to the 2019 Global Casino Championship for a seat he earned last year when he decided to take a pit-stop at the Oklahoma property. "This is definitely the most fun I've had. I've won a lot more money playing poker but this is for sure the most fun I've ever had." Larson's back-to-back victories puts him in prime position to earn a seat in the following Global Casino Championship. The top point-earner at Choctaw earns a 2020 seat and he currently owns 100-points.
