BRIEF HISTORY OF THE WORLD SERIES OF POKER

Though the World Series of Poker made its official debut in 1970, the idea of the Horseshoe Casino's annual tournament was actually conceived more than two decades earlier.

In the summer of 1949, as the story goes, inveterate gambler Nicholas “Nick the Greek” Dandolos approached Benny Binion with an unusual request – to challenge the best in a high-stakes poker marathon. Binion agreed to set up a match between Dandolos and the legendary Johnny Moss, with the stipulation the game be viewed in public.

During the course of the marathon, which lasted five months with breaks only for sleep, the two men played every form of poker imaginable. Moss ultimately won “the biggest game in town” and an estimated $2 million. When the Greek lost his last pot, he arose from his chair, bowed slightly, and uttered the now-famous words, “Mr. Moss, I have to let you go.” Dandolos then went upstairs to bed.

Though significant in its own way as a chapter in poker history, the five-month marathon took on added importance to Benny Binion. He noted that the public had gathered outside the casino each day to watch the game with the fervor of dedicated sports fans, and he was amazed at the attention the event had attracted. But it wasn't until 1970 that Binion decided to re-create this excitement and stage a battle of poker giants – dubbed the “World Series of Poker” – to determine who would be worthy of the title World Champion. Some of the best players in the country were assembled, and Johnny Moss came out on top. The decision was democratic in that the champion was decided by popular vote.

The following year, the winner was determined by a freeze-out competition, with players being systematically eliminated until one player had all the chips. Moss again became the World Champion. In 1972, when Thomas “Amarillo Slim” Preston won the title and went on the talk show circuit, the WSOP began to gain a wider following.

It was a year later that Binion participated in the Oral History Project at the University of Nevada-Reno and discussed the World Series of Poker (WSOP) with interviewer Mary Ellen Glass. “This poker game here gets us a lot of attention,” he told Glass. “We had seven players last year, and this year we had 13. I look to have better than 20 next year. It's even liable to get up to be 50, might get up to be more than that.” Binion then paused, and as if gazing into the future, prophesied, “It will eventually.”

In the early 1980s, with the introduction of preliminary satellite competitions with lower buy-ins, Binion's prophecy came to fruition and the popularity of the World Series of Poker soared. (A satellite is a tournament whose prize is an entry into another higher buy-in tournament).

But even Benny Binion, who passed away on Christmas Day of 1989, would have had difficulty foreseeing the enormous growth the annual tournament has experienced since.

In 1982, nine years after Mr. Binion participated in UNR's Oral History Project, the tournament drew a total of 1,253 entrants across all its events. Two decades later, there were 7,593 entries and the 2018's WSOP attracted a record 123,865 entrants from an astonishing 104 different nations. The prize money has increased exponentially as well. In 1982, a total of $2,607,700 was awarded, while in 2018 a staggering $266,889,193 was won. Whereas only 12 events, mostly Texas Hold'em and Seven-Card Stud, were scheduled as recently as 1988, the 2018 series offered 78 competitions that featured a wide variety of games.

The WSOP is now a global phenomenon, with the WSOP Circuit, a WSOP International Circuit, WSOP Europe and WSOP Asia-Pacific all regular live events on the poker calendar. Plus, with a leading WSOP Social Game and real-money online poker in New Jersey and Nevada, the brand reaches every corner of the globe with digital or live iterations.

The legacy Benny Binion left the poker community ranks as the oldest, largest, most prestigious, and most media-hyped gaming competition in the world, and, no doubt, it holds the promise of an even brighter future. But equally important, the World Series of Poker has touched thousands of lives over the years, affording talented players the opportunity to follow their dreams, reach for the stars and perhaps one day achieve greatness in their chosen endeavor.

ABOUT WORLD SERIES OF POKER EUROPE

The World Series of Poker Europe (WSOPE) was established in 2007 by Caesars Interactive Entertainment to bring the excitement and entertainment of the World Series of Poker to destinations around the globe.

WSOPE was the first live tournament brand extension internationally of the world's longest-running, richest and most prestigious gaming event. During the first nine years of the WSOPE, a total of 23,292 entrants have competed for 59 gold bracelets and been awarded more than $108 million in prize money.

In the first four years, the event was held in London, England at the Casino at the Empire in Leicester Square. For the next two years, the WSOPE was held in Cannes, France at the Casino Barrière de Cannes Croisette and the Hotel Majestic Barrière. In 2013, the event took place in Paris, France at Enghien Les Bains and Casino Barrière. In 2015 the series moved west and was held in Berlin, Germany at the Spielbank Casino.

World Series of Poker Europe moved to King's Casino in Rozvadov, Czech Republic in 2017. This year's series will return to Rozvadov and contested from October 9 – November 2, 2018. This is the first time the WSOPE will be held in the same location for two consecutive years since Casino Barrière de Cannes Croisette in Cannes, France held the event in 2011 and 2012.

Twenty-one different nations have captured a WSOP Gold Bracelet on European soil: USA (14), UK (6), France (5), Canada (4), Germany (4), Czech Republic (3), Denmark (3), Greece (3), Australia (2), Italy (2), Portugal (2), Spain (2) and Afghanistan, Finland, Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, Tunisia, Ukraine and Uruguay.

WSOP GOLD BRACELETS

Phil Hellmuth holds the record for the most career WSOP gold bracelets with 15. He extended his bracelet lead at the 2018 WSOP in Las Vegas when he won his 15th career gold bracelet in the $5,000 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo event. It was Hellmuth's 13th career bracelet in hold'em; his other two were earned in Razz events.. John Hennigan cracked the top 25 in the summer of 2018 after winning his 5th career bracelet by winning the $10k HORSE event.

WSOP PLAYER OF THE YEAR

The World Series of Poker instituted a Player of the Year system in 2004, after Caesars acquired the brand. The system awards points based on finish for all open bracelet events. Anyone who cashes in an open WSOP gold bracelet event is awarded points. The player with the most overall points is the winner of the WSOP Player of the Year.

The 2018 Player of the Year will be the person who accumulates the most points this year in open bracelet events contested in Las Vegas and Rozvadov for WSOP Europe. Ladies, Casino, Seniors, Super Seniors, Tag Team, Big One for One Drop and Global Casino Championship do not count in Player of the Year standings.

Shaun Deeb (4,334 points) currently leads after winning two bracelets, reaching three final tables and cashing 16 times at the summer series in Las Vegas. Behind Deeb is Ben Yu (3,746) currently in second and Joe Cada (3,531) in third.

WSOPE LIVE COVERAGE

Live Reporting

PokerNews and the World Series of Poker have partnered up to bring all the WSOP Europe action straight to the fans at home. PokerNews will be live reporting every bracelet event from start to finish.

Chip counts of notable players will be updated regularly throughout the tournament. At the end of each night both sites will have the entire remaining field chip counts posted. Players that want to share their tournament progress are encouraged to download the PokerNews “My Stack” app. The app allows users to post their current chip count straight to the website.

Twitter

The best place for news, important tournament information and tournament updates is Twitter. The one and only Keven Mathers will be on-site in Rozvadov for the entire series to run the @WSOP Twitter account and the @PokerroomKings account.

*2019 International Circuit stops coming soon

The 2018/2019 campaign is the fourth season of the WSOP International Circuit. Each stop will award two seats to the 2019 $1 Million Guaranteed Global Casino Championship - one to the Main Event winner and one to the Casino Championship winner.

Playground Poker in Montreal, Canada kicked off this season with a record breaking Main Event. The Main Event drew 2,401 entries to become the largest Circuit Main Event ever (domestic or international).
