LAS VEGAS/ROZVADOV, Czech Republic – August 30, 2019 – Less than eight weeks out from World Series of Poker Europe (WSOPE), five new events have been added to enhance poker's largest annual European festival, with a diverse slate of tournaments on the schedule which now will feature fifteen official gold bracelet events and prize pool guarantees totaling more than €22,000,000.

Event buy-ins will range from a €350 opening event, all the way up to a €250,000 High Roller. In 2018, WSOP Europe featured more than 6,000 entries competing for nearly €21 million in prize money

“We heard the feedback and are happy to add some mixed games and some bigger buy-in tournaments in order to encourage more players to make the trip,” said King's Resort owner Leon Tsoukernik. “After hosting some big events here at King's recently, players insisted to me they would come back to WSOP Europe if we added a few additional tournaments. So, we have now done so and we look forward to welcoming them with this revised WSOP Europe schedule in October.”

WSOP Europe in 2019 will of course include the €10,000 buy-in Main Event, featuring a €5 million guarantee, that has two starting flights on October 25 and 26.

“Coming off the success of the 50th Annual World Series of Poker in Las Vegas, we took another look at the initial WSOPE schedule and felt we could enhance it,” said WSOP Vice President Jack Effel. “Leon and his team have been great partners for WSOP Europe and while the dates of the 2019 event haven't changed, we were able to find some room to add some exciting new events that will drive bigger prize pools and keep players busy.”

The 2019 WSOP Europe itself has €22,472,450 in prize pool guarantees, and adding in the WSOP Circuit event that will immediately precede WSOP Europe (from September 26-October 14) and the satellite guarantees, and this WSOP festival becomes can't miss for players with nearly €25,000,000 million guaranteed up for grabs.
