AND THEN THERE WAS ONE

Aaron Bieck Bests Largest Field in WSOPC History to Pocket $124,438.

Hammond, IN (October 17, 2011)—Every one of the 3,001 entrants in Event #1 of the WSOP Circuit at Horseshoe Hammond was a part of poker history.

3,001.

That number broke the single tournament attendance record by an astonishing 1,400 players!

Since its opening in 2008, Hammond has become accustomed to outstanding WSOPC turnouts. In 2009 they set the bar with 1,412 entrants in Event #1. A year later, they eclipsed their own record by almost 200 entrants and hosted 1,611 players. This year they blew that number out of the water with a record-obliterating turnout in the $350 No-Limit Hold'em Re-Entry Event #1.

The newest WSOPC Champion is 25-year-old, Aaron Bieck. He worked his way through the largest field in WSOP Circuit history to record a $124,438 payday.

Bieck did all this without even being 100 percent. He tore his ACL a month and a half ago and his knee brace sat by his side for most of the final table. He wasn't healthy enough to walk down the stairs after his victory, but he was healthy enough to work his way through 3,001 players without a problem. He has an exam scheduled for next week, and surgery is in his near future, but for now, he'll enjoy the win.

Bieck resides in Plymouth, Wisconsin outside of Milwaukee. He has been working for a consulting firm since he graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire with a degree in finance in 2008.

The field was large and the hours were long, but Bieck says it was worth every bit of it.

When the two starting days combined for play on Day 2, 360 players remained. Eliminations came fairly fast and after about an hour and a half the remaining 297 players were in the money. They played down to 27 players, at which time play was halted until 2 p.m. CST the following day.

Due to the large field size, play lasted a little longer than expected, and the final table followed suit, extending the better part of eight hours.

When they reached the final table on Day 3, it looked like this:

Final Table:

Seat 1	Jeff Manza	4,405,000
Seat 2	Jenchwen Chang	3,710,000
Seat 3	Jason T. Zeller	1,785,000
Seat 4	Leo Whitt	2,300,000
Seat 5	Tan Nguyen	2,240,000
Seat 6	Aaron Bieck	2,500,000
Seat 7	Peter Nigh	2,435,000
Seat 8	Daniel Acevedo	2,700,000
Seat 9	Javier Figueron	4,300,000
Seat 10	David Shonback	4,000,000

Tenth Place:

Tan Nguyen is a 40-year-old poker pro who was born in Vietnam. His tenth place finish awarded him $11,265.

Ninth Place:

Jenchwen Chang was originally born in Taiwan and now resides in Lawrenceburg, Indiana. He is a 61-year-old professional poker player and he earned $14,200 for his ninth place finish.

Eighth Place:

Leo Whitt, 54, final tabled the 2011 WSOP Seniors Tournament in Las Vegas. He improved on his ninth place finish by one spot, finishing eighth in Hammond. He works in health care and earned $17,649.

Seventh Place:

38-year-old Daniel Acevedo is a semi-professional poker player who also works in product development. He resides in Belvidere, Illinois with his wife and two children. He pocketed $22,208 for his seventh place finish.

Sixth Place:

Jason T. Zeller is a 33-year-old financial assistance officer. He was born and raised in Peoria, Illinois. This was his first big tournament score and it was good for a $28,129 payday.

Fifth Place:

Javier Figueron left the tournament in fifth place. He is a 29-year-old power lineman from Chicago, Illinois. His wife and two young children will be happy to see him come home with $35,875. Not bad for only his fifth live tournament ever.

Fourth Place:

Peter Nigh hails from Columbia, Missouri. He is 22-years-old and works as a professional poker player. His fourth place finish was good enough for $45,691.

Third Place:

Jeff Manza came to the final table as the chip leader and continued to grow his stack. With three people left he had about half the chips in play. Twice Manza found himself holding Ace King and on the brink of eliminating an opponent. The second time he actually held Ace King versus the Ace Jack of David Schonback. The Jack on the flop brought Manza back to reality and he was eliminated in third place shortly after. He cashed for $58,982.

Manza is a self-employed 25-year-old from Naperville, Illinois.

Second Place:

David Schonback is a 26-year-old property manager from Geneva, Illinois. This was his first WSOP cash and he took home $76,911.

First Place:

Aaron Bieck is a 25-year-old junior executive at a consulting firm. This was his first live tournament win. His poker ambition is to travel the world playing the game he loves.

Winner Interview:

You just won the largest tournament in WSOPC history. How does it feel? – “Amazing. I’ve only played like 10 live tournaments so to take one down with 3,000 runners is something very special.”

What does the ring mean to you? – “It’s the first live tournament I’ve ever won and it’s very important that it was a WSOP Circuit event. To win something that big, that prestigious. To have the opportunity to even play in a tournament that big, and to take it down... It’s amazing.”

What are you going to do with the money? – “I don’t exactly know what I’m going to do with it. Like everything else, like poker, you analyze it, you make a decision and you take things as they come.”

This is the first of 12 ring events slated to take place at the Horseshoe Hammond. Winners of all events will receive first-place prize money and the coveted WSOP Circuit ring. In addition, the winner of the Main Event will receive a seat to the $1 million Circuit National Championship in Las Vegas. An additional seat will be awarded to the individual who earns the most Circuit points at this stop.

The WSOP Circuit Events at Horseshoe Hammond continue through October 24. The Main Event will take place October 21.

Each final table throughout the 2011/2012 Circuit tour will be streamed live at WSOP.com
