Final Gold Ring at The Bike Goes to Cho Myun

LA's First-Ever "12 Rings in 12 Days" Series Ends on a High Note

Los Angeles, CA (January 12, 2011/2012) – The World Series of Poker Circuit concluded today at The Bicycle Casino, located in the Bell Gardens section of Los Angeles.

The final tournament champion of The Bike's series is Cho Myun, from Los Angeles.

Myun collected $15,087 in prize money for his win. He was also presented with the coveted WSOP Circuit gold ring, the top prize awarded to all Circuit event winners.

Remarkably, this was his first time to cash in any WSOP tournament.

Event #12 was a one-day $300 (+45) Turbo No-Limit Hold'em tournament, which attracted 192 entrants. The turbo format means that levels are shorter, which accelerates the action. Instead of a two-day tournament, the competition is designed to end within about 12 hours of play.

Play began on Thursday at noon and played until past midnight.

The total prize pool came to $55,872. The top 18 finishers were paid. All players who cashed received WSOP Circuit National Championship ranking points – used to qualify for a seat in the season-ending championship, to be played in Las Vegas.
