Ferb, I Know What We're Going to Do Today!
35-year old San Antonio, TX native earns his first Circuit ring.

Bossier City, LA (November 11, 2013) – The road to Bossier City is not an unfamiliar one for Sandeep Vasudevan. The 35-year old used to be a regular online poker player, but the lack of online options plus his job as Vice President of a bank means he has a hard time finding time to play.

He did make time to make the trek to Bossier City to take part in Event 4 though. Upon leaving, his son made only one request: If he does well, he has to buy him a Phineas and Ferb Agent P video game.

Well, guess what Ferb, I know what we're going to do today!

Vasudevan not only came away with his first WSOP Circuit career cash, but he also took home the first place prize of $15,835 and the gold ring.

A total of 203 players entered the $365 No-Limit Hold'em event at the Horseshoe Bossier City. Play was moving right along until the money bubble. Hand-for-hand play continued for more than an hour before the bubble finally burst.

At the end of Day 1, only 13 players remained. Michael Wood paced the field with 347,000 while Vasudevan sat in eighth chip position going into Day 2.

It took just four hours for Vasudevan to move his name to the top of the results page and earn the fourth Circuit ring of the Horseshoe Bossier City series.

"I am definitely going to play more events now and make a run at the WSOP National Championship seat," Vasudevan said after his victory.

First things first though, Vasudevan is heading home to buy his son that video game.

We have a feeling Dr. Doofenshmirtz has just met his match.

Full results from the final table were as follows:

1st – SANDEEP VASUDEVAN SAN ANTONIO, TX $15,835
2nd – LONNY WEITZEL TEXARKANA, TX $9,781

Notes on the Event

- Day 2 took just four hours to complete.
- This was the first Circuit cash for winner Sandeep Vasudevan.
- Runner-up Lonny Weitzel never had a Circuit cash before this Bossier City series and now has two.

With his victory, Vasudevan earns 50 points towards the Horseshoe Bossier City Casino Champion standings. The player who accumulates the most overall points in Horseshoe Bossier City's twelve combined gold ring tournaments earns the title Casino Champion and receives an automatic entry into the 2014 WSOP National Championship, as will the winner of the Horseshoe Bossier City Main Event. All players who cash in ring events will receive points that apply to both the Casino Champion race and the season-long race to claim one of the at-large National Championship bids awarded to the top point earners throughout the season.
