It may have taken an extra day of play, but once the cards were in the air for the unscheduled finale to the $500 Casino Employees Event, it took Roland Reparejo just five minutes to lock up the first bracelet of the summer and an $82,835 payday.

The California chef turned poker dealer prevailed at a final table which saw numerous double ups and reversals of fortune, as nearly every player at the table saw their chip stack fluctuate from the top to the bottom of the counts. "This is incredible to win," a jubilant Reparejo said afterward. "I've been coming here for years, usually to play in the Employee's event and the Seniors, too. I can't believe I won this. It's a dream to me."
