The 2014 World Series of Poker is turning into "The George Danzer Show". The German poker pro from Salzburg just won his second gold bracelet in two weeks, triumphing amidst a stacked field and fiercely-contested final table filled with veteran players with plenty of poker jewelry.

Danzer's latest victory occurred in the $10,000 buy-in Seven-Card Stud Hi-Lo Championship. The breakout star of this year's series collected $352,696 in prize money, plus lots of added notoriety as the player to watch for much of the remainder of this summer's annual extravaganza.

Danzer previously won the $10,000 buy-in Razz tournament. He now has two wins, three final table appearances, four top-ten finishes, and five cashes during this series. The achievements give Danzer first place in the WSOP Player of the Year race at the moment.
