In cash games you may be able to run it twice, but when it comes to tournament poker, do overs are few and far between. That is exactly what Will Givens got today though, final tabling the same $1,000 No Limit Hold'em event he took fourth place in just one week ago. The second chance at a bracelet proved to be a fruitful one, as the Denver, Colorado poker pro won his first gold bracelet and $306,634.

Givens bested 29-year-old Miami-based pastry chef Angela Prada-Moed for the title just one week after appearing at the final table of the event of the tournament won by Dutch Boyd. He now has over $400,000 in earnings from five cashes so far this summer.
