Army Veteran Leaves Tahoe as a Ring Winner

Sarge Glenn wins the final event at the 2014 Harveys Lake Tahoe stop.

Stateline, Nev. (November 10, 2014) -- On the final day and the last event of the 2014 Harveys Lake Tahoe stop, Sarge Glenn won his first WSOP Circuit gold ring. Glenn defeated a field of 152 players to earn the first place prize money of $12,314.

Glenn just recently retired from the U.S. Army after 21 year of service. He served in the Infantry Division. He won his first gold ring one day before Veteran's Day. Glenn made it to Day 2 of the Main Event and just yesterday was playing in that. He busted from the Main Event in 39th place for $2,576. After his bust out, Glenn decided to hop into this event for one last chance at a ring.

"I didn't want to go to the blackjack tables," laughed Glenn about why he jumped straight into this event. "My good friend Erle was points chasing, so I came over just to chill, relax and play against him."

Glenn is ecstatic about his victory, but is still a little sour about busting from a cooler in the Main Event when he flopped a set and his opponent flopped a flush draw and straight draw. Unfortunately for Glenn, he was on the wrong end of that hand, but he did make the most out of a bad situation by turning his misfortune into a gold ring.

Glenn spent the whole week playing events at this stop. Glenn's first cash wasn't until the Main Event. He may have started out slow, but he finished as strong as anyone with two cashes in the final two days for a total earnings of $14,890.

Event #11 winner, Michael Rocco, ended up finishing in fifth place in this event. Rocco was attempting to win back-to-back gold rings. He was also in contention to win the Casino Championship. Rocco needed a first or second place finish to win the the Casino Championship, but finished just short. He still was able to make back-to-back final tables which is an impressive feat of its own.

Glenn is good friends with Event #1 ring winner, Erle Mankin. Mankin finished runner-up in the Casino Championship race. The two combined to win the first and last events at Harveys Lake Tahoe and cashed for more than $25,000.

Event #12 was the final gold ring event on the WSOP Circuit schedule at Harveys Lake Tahoe in Stateline, Nev. The $365 No-Limit Hold'em tournament attracted 152 entries generating a $45,600 prize pool. The top 18 players were paid.

Notes on the event:

- Michael Rocco (5th place) was making back-to-back final table appearances.
- Glenn's victory comes one day before Veteran's Day.
- Brett Shaffer (8th) won his second career bracelet this summer in Las Vegas.

Steve Foutty accumulated the most overall points during the Harveys Lake Tahoe twelve combined gold ring tournaments to earn the title as Casino Champion and he will receive an automatic entry into the WSOP National Championship set to take place at the end of the year.

All players who cash in ring events receive points that apply toward the Casino Championship race and the season-long race to claim one of 50 at-large National Championship bids awarded to the top point earners throughout the season. More information on the points system is available on WSOP.com.
