After ten previous final tables, Schwartz now has his first WSOP Circuit ring.

Las Vegas (17 November 2015) – Jason Schwartz became the latest World Series of Poker Circuit ring winner on Monday. Schwartz, a native of Montana, earned his first Circuit ring and $12,095 after winning Event #4: $365 No-Limit Hold'em at Planet Hollywood in Las Vegas.

"I feel wonderful," Schwartz said after his victory. "I've been wanting to win one of these for a long time." Schwartz had come close many times in the past. He's made 10 WSOP Circuit final tables in the past, but the ring had eluded him until Monday.

Despite winning his ring in a hold'em tournament, Schwartz tends to focus on other poker games. "They keep my mind so active and interested," he said. "When it comes to hold'em I'm just learning to learning how to keep my mind active and focused on the smaller things at the table that are important."

The event attracted 144 players, creating a prize pool of $43,200. The top 15 players made the money. Among those cashing in the event was two-time WSOP bracelet winner Susie Isaacs (11th place, $886).

The tournament was played over the course of two days starting Sunday, November 15. Of the 144 entrants, seven returned for Day 2, which began at 2:00 p.m. on Monday, November 16. Schwartz earned his victory at about 4:45, making the final day a little less than three hours.
