Cherokee, N.C. (December 5, 2015) -- James McAuley has just won the ninth event at the Harrah's Cherokee series to earn his first WSOP Circuit gold ring and the top prize of $24,286. McAuley has been playing the Harrah's Cherokee Circuit series' since they began in April of 2013.

"Ever since the WSOP has been here [in Cherokee]. I have been here," said McAuley.

In the first Harrah's Cherokee series ever McAuley cashed twice, including reaching one final table. Since that series he has only cashed one other time before this event.

"It feels pretty good. It's been a long time," said McAuley about winning the gold ring.

McAuley had the support of a large rail during his final table. When the final card of the tournament hit the river McAuley jumped out of his seat to share his excitement with his rail.

"I had a coach named James Kenny who had been very good to me. He helped me to stay focused and not make any mistakes, not overplay hands like I normally do. Congrats to him with me," said McAuley.

McAuley is a land surveyor from Chesterfield, S.C. He has been a land surveyor since the age of 21. He said he can attribute some of his success from poker to his math skills that he has obtained from being a land surveyor.
