William “Jeter” Brock Wins 2nd WSOP Circuit Ring in Tulsa

Brock won the $365 No-Limit Hold'em Freezeout event for over $14,000.

Tulsa, Okla. (21 March 2017) — Just under two months ago, William “Jeter” Brock won his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring after more than 30 cashes. At the time, he described himself as a “serial min-casher,” joking about his history of failing to run deep in tournaments. But Brock is for sure no longer a serial min-casher, having won his second Circuit ring in under months.

Brock emerged victorious in Event #4: $365 No-Limit Hold'em Freezeout at the Hard Rock Tulsa, earning $14,586 for the win.

Brock has become a fixture on the Circuit in recent years, always recognizable by the University of Alabama clothes he wears at the tables. And in his poker career, the wisdom of the U of A football coach keeps him focused. When asked about how he moved from a “serial min-casher” to a serial ring winner, he said, “I hate to use the words of Coach Saban, but it’s the process. It’s not the results. You just your best, and sometimes it works out and sometimes it doesn’t.”

The final day of the tournament was a short-lived affair, lasting just a little more than three hours. Over two of those hours involved four-handed play. But Brock won a big hand against then-chip leader Andrew Watson. Watson was eliminated soon after, and less than half an hour later Brock held all the chips.

The runner-up finisher was Joshua Evans, who won Event #3 here at the Hard Rock a couple days ago. Evans missed out on winning back-to-back rings, but this performance vaults him into the lead in the Casino Champion race. Evans now has 87.5 points, and no other player has more than 50.

Event #4 was the fourth event to play to completion at the WSOP Circuit at the Hard Rock Tulsa. The $365 No-Limit Hold'em freezeout event drew a field of 187 players, generating a prizepool worth $56,100. The final 21 players finished in the money. Full results are available on WSOP.com.

The tournament began at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, March 20. Seven players advanced to Day 2, which began at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, March 21. The final hand was dealt at about 5:15 p.m.

After this event, Joshua Evans takes the lead in the Casino Champion race. The player who accumulates the most overall points during the 12 ring events at the Hard Rock Tulsa earns the title of Casino Champion and receives automatic entry into the WSOP Global Casino Championship. Additionally, all players who cash in ring events earn points that apply toward the season-long race to claim one of the limited at-large bids. Evans has 87.5 points from two cashes (a victory and a runner-up finish). More information on the points system is available on WSOP.com.
