ED BASHUK WINS SIX MAX AT IP BILOXI

Software consultant wins another $12,000 on Circuit tour and first gold ring.

Ed Bashuk claimed the Six Max title on Tuesday at the IP Biloxi Circuit. The Software Consultant defeated a field of 142 players in Event #5: $365 No-Limit Hold'em Six Max Re-Entry to win his first World Series of Poker gold ring and $12,141.

The tournament took two days to complete. After playing an extra level on Day 1, the heads-up competitors agreed they would sleep it off and finish the next afternoon. Bashuk seemed to be the primary advocate for the decision.

"Yeah, I was pretty tired. We played one extra round, and we had a lot of chips. We could have lasted another couple hours," explained Bashuk. The extension was a pivot point that favored Bashuk in the end.

During the first level of Day 2, Bashuk delivered a final blow to Chris Edwards who took away $7,505 for the runner-up finish, just missing his first gold ring.

Bashuk modestly explained how he managed the first-place accomplishment. "I guess just getting lucky, grinding it out. Just getting good cards at the right time," said the resident of Atlanta, Georgia.

Before his recent gold-ring achievement, Bashuk had just one previous cash on the WSOP Circuit tour, a fifth-place finish at Caesars Indiana in 2007. Similarly, each of his two Circuit cashes were worth around $12,000.
