DANIEL DOUCET DOUBLES UP ON GOLD RINGS

Turbo triumph provides Louisiana native with second career gold ring.

Daniel Doucet was the proud victor of Event #6 at the IP Biloxi Circuit. The Louisiana native outlasted 143 entrants in the $365 buy-in, turbo-style tournament to win $12,014 and his second World Series of Poker gold ring.

The event began Monday and was scheduled as a one-day endeavor, which held true, though it took a dip into the wee hours of the night. Players were undoubtedly drained during the final stretch.

"It was hard to do. I took a 5 Hour Energy," Doucet said with a laugh.

The moment of triumph finally came around 3:30 a.m. when Doucet scored the final elimination against Darren Martin, the turbo's runner-up, leaving the casual poker player to hoist the gold ring.

"It's just a hobby of mine," claimed Doucet. "I'm kind of semi-retired. I like to play poker and golf."

Doucet has frequented the WSOP throughout recent years and this was not his first time in the winner's circle. The 61-year-old's previous Circuit title came in 2011 at the Harrah's New Orleans series.

When comparing the two milestones, Doucet simply stated "It gets better every time."
