CHRIS TRYBA WINS 2nd WSOP CIRCUIT RING AT FOXWOODS

Tryba is back in the Circuit ring winner's circle after a nine year hiatus.

Poker professional Chris Tryba defeated Kevin Balcom heads up in Event #1 ($365 No-Limit Hold'em) to secure his second World Series of Poker Circuit ring, and $14,664 at Foxwoods Casino.

Tryba has live poker tournament results dating back to 2003. In the last fourteen years, he has managed to acquire more than $683,000 in World Series of Poker earning, one bracelet, and one Circuit ring prior to today's win. Tryba is widely known as a mixed game specialist, and can often be found at a Stud cash game here at Foxwoods when he's not otherwise tied up playing tournaments.

Since this is the first ring awarded in the Foxwoods series, Tryba has also taken the lead in the race for Casino Champion. Tryba secured 50 points for his win today. The player to accumulate the most points over the course of the series wins the title of Foxwoods Casino Champion, and wins a free seat into the $1 million guarantee WSOP Global Casino Championship event held each year in August in Cherokee, NC.
