Tracy Oto Wins First Circuit Ring in the Bounty Event

Competitive paintball lover from Sacramento takes to the felt to earn his biggest career cash

The fourth event in the newest World Series of Poker Circuit stop at Thunder Valley Casino Resort wrapped up late in the night with Tracy Oto getting the job done. The self-employed recreational player sits atop a field of 243 entries, taking home $11,906 for his biggest score.

Oto is a quiet and simple man, enjoying the competition that comes with poker. This doesn't stop on the felt, however, as the 62-year-old Sacramento native also enjoys bass fishing and competitive paintballing. "This is my biggest win, but my second one" said a proud Oto. He took down a local tournament earlier in the year, but is enjoying his first gold ring.
