Daniel Evans Wins Second Career Monster Stack Ring

California native snags his second ring in the same event within a two-year span

Daniel Evans found himself heads-up in the $365 No-Limit Hold'em Monster Stack, up against his friend and Circuit regular Brett Murray. Both players were up for their second ring, with Murray winning his first a few days ago. Evans won this exact event in Lake Tahoe two years ago and was on par to win again. In the final hand, Murray got it in with ace-king and Evans called with ace-queen. The flop came queen-high and Evans' fate was sealed.

Evans earned himself $21,782 for the win, but the real prize was his second career gold Circuit ring and title.

The 32-year-old Chico, California native came in to the final table in the middle of the pack but quietly climbed his way to the top. His career earnings have now surpassed the $200,000 mark and he has booked his fourth live tournament win. Evans had a loud and supportive rail behind him as he clinched a ring in his home state in the very first Circuit stop at Thunder Valley Casino Resort.
