Dennis “D. Mike” Morrison Claims the H.O.R.S.E. Title

Newly-crowned champion has been playing poker for 40 years and finally wins a WSOP title

Dennis “D. Mike” Morrison of Castro Valley, California is the victor in the $365 H.O.R.S.E. event, taking home $7,140 after topping a field of 68 entries.

The proud poker veteran laughed and said “I first went to the World Series of Poker in 1994 and witnessed Phil Hellmuth look like he wanted to strangle Men Nguyen.” Morrison says he has been going to the WSOP for over 40 years and his favorite tournament is the 8-game mix.

Morrison has 29 cashes now and has added a Circuit ring to his list of accomplishments. His biggest win came right here in Lincoln, California where he came in 4th place for $20,000. He is a recreational player and clearly has a love for the game. “I’ve been playing this game forever and I’ve never gone bust!” he laughed. “I have to go and drive to work. I won’t call in. That’s not who I am” said a prideful Morrison.
