A.J. YOWLER WINS FIRST CIRCUIT RING AT PLANET HOLLYWOOD

Army National Guard veteran wins his first ring after leaving the poker world to start a family

A.J. Yowler bested a field of 93 entries to win his first Circuit ring after leaving the professional poker world to turn his focus on his family and accounting. He only had one day off from celebrating his Dad's retirement and picked the right one, pocketing $8,370 for the win.

"I played online poker quite a bit, played professionally for about 19 months. I've got a fiancé with two kids – needed a little bit of security. I took accounting, Masters. Now I do disaster relief compliance." Yowler had a lot of success in 2015, but said that things dried up a little bit and he now plays when he can at Choctaw.
