STEVE LUSTIG TAKES DOWN THE H.O.R.S.E. EVENT

Mixed game crusher gets the job done for first Circuit ring at Thunder Valley

Steve Lustig made the final table of the Omaha Hi-Lo event on Monday night and finished as runner-up. He wasn't satisfied, so he made the final table of the H.O.R.S.E. event on Tuesday night and made it to heads-up play again. This time, he got the job done.

Lustig definitely plays No-Limit Hold'em, having cashed the World Series of Poker Main Event, but is a mixed game specialist based on his results. He made the WSOP $10K Omaha Hi-Lo final table in 2014, finishing in 7th for $65,472. He has also final tabled the $3K Omaha Hi-Lo event in 2006, as well as Doyle Brunson's Five Diamond Classic event in 2011. Lustig came back from being the shortest stack at the table to finishing at the top of the list, pocketing $6,515 and his first Circuit ring.
