ADRIANO WISE WINS 1ST CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT 12

Political science professor takes down his first tournament for his biggest career cash

Adriano Wise took down the final $365 ring event at Thunder Valley for his first ever Circuit ring and overall tournament win. Wise also locked up his biggest cash, pocketing $15,132 for the victory. The newly crowned champion is a Political Science professor in the Bay Area at West Valley college and plays poker as a hobby.

"Of my circle of friends, we've all had good runs and cashes and final tables at different Circuit events. Tahoe and here (Sacramento). This'll be the first ring amongst the crew. Definitely bragging rights." The San Jose native says he is a recreational player, but came up playing poker with his friends and remains competitive with them. "I used to play agro and used to act like I knew everything" laughed Wise. "I think once I humbled myself I got a lot better."
