Stephen Nussrallah Wins Second Gold Rgin

Stephen Nussrallah starting 2018 off with $30K win.

Stephen Nussrallah has just won Event #9: $580 No-Limit Hold'em at the Horseshoe Tunica Circuit. Nussrallah defeated a 248-player field to win $30,379 and his second career WSOP Circuit gold ring.

"It feels good. I think I just need to play the $580 events," said Nussrallah.

Nussrallah has had most of his success on the Circuit at the $580 buy-in level. He won his first ring at Harrah's Cherokee in 2015 in a $580 no-limit hold'em event. That win earned Nussrallah $38,412. Earlier this season, he finished runner-up in a $580 buy-in event at the IP Biloxi Circuit.

"It's fun to be here again. I haven't had a big cash in like a year," said Nussrallah.

Nussrallah cashed only one time in 2017 for five-figures plus, which was his runner-up in Biloxi. It was a down year by Nussrallah's standards. In both 2016 and 2015, Nussrallah had over $100K in WSOP tournament earnings. Nussrallah finished 3rd out of 6,927 entries in the 2016 $1,500 Monster Stack in Las Vegas for $513,902. In 2015, Nussrallah final tabled the $1,000 Seniors Championship, finishing 7th for $84,644. In total, Nussrallah has 43 career WSOP cashes for $841,437.

Nussrallah said you will be seeing him in Vegas again this summer where he hopes to make his third career Las Vegas WSOP final table and win his first gold bracelet.
