Bradley Yazici Tops a Massive Field of 1,232 to Take First Place in Event #2

Bradley Yazici is usually a cash game grinder but he took a step away from the cash games to score a victory in Event #2 for $65,597.

You won't find Bradley Yazici very often in a poker tournament, that's because he's usually caught up in the cash games instead playing in the 5/10 or 10/25 games around Baltimore. On the rail, his friends joked with him about winning the one tournament he's played in the last eight months.

"It's so close to where I live," Yazici said about choosing this tournament to play. "I'm only 15 minutes away. And that guarantee is enticing too."

But Yazici made the most of his time away from the cash games, taking down the tournament and the $65,597 first place prize. For Yazici, it was just another day at the office.

"It's my biggest live cash," Yazici said. "I've had a few online back in the day. To be honest, it's just like any other day. I don't really think the accolades... I'm not very much into that so it's not really a big deal to me, but it's still nice."

It wasn't too tough for Yazici. He carried a big stack for most of the day and sent a few players home in some cooler spots. The final hand was also a big cooler when runner-up Brett Apter turned two-pair, but Yazici had flopped a set of fives.

“It was great,” Yazici said about his final table. “I had around the chip lead the whole time. I never got put in any tough spots or anything like that. Cooled a couple people.

“Brett’s a good player,” Yazici said about the last hand “I play with him a decent amount in the 5/10 games. Nothing you can do there. It’s just a cooler.”

Despite being mainly a cash game player, Yazici is now in it to win it in the tournament game. He says he’s going to be back for the rest of the series, chasing points for the Casino Championship.

For his victory Yazici takes home $65,597 and his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring.
