MIKE COX BOOKS HIS BIGGEST WIN FOR $115,516

Poker dealer goes wire-to-wire on the final table to win his first tournament

Mike Cox was victorious in Event 2: $400 No-Limit Hold'em after coming in to the final table with the chip lead, and then booking the win from there in less than two hours. "I was 11th in chips starting today. It was kinda smooth – I hit a few bumps but you can't win all the hands."

The card dealer from Sumter, South Carolina has been playing poker for 20 years and this is his biggest cash, with his last one being a little over $20,000. This is also Cox's first ever tournament win, which was clearly a big deal to him being that he plays poker and deals it for a living.
