VITTORIO FARICELLI WINS 1st WSOP CIRCUIT RING IN OPENING EVENT OF FOXWOODS SERIES

Faricelli finally gets the monkey off his back after taking second earlier this year in Atlantic City, NJ

In March of this year Vittorio Faricelli nearly won his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring after taking second place in the $365 No-Limit Hold'em Circuit event at Harrah's in Atlantic City. Today, he closed out the $400 No-Limit Hold'em Event #1 at Foxwoods Casino earning, $11,187 for his victory.

Faricelli greatly attributes maintaining a positive attitude to his success in poker, "Everybody goes through ups and downs in life. It's important to have gratitude to help you power through the rough times. After the thunderstorms comes the sunshine."

Faricelli is also a newlywed, having married his partner Pamela in May of this year. "I am running great in poker and life," Faricelli concluded with a smile.
