ALEX JIM DEFEATS MASSIVE FIELD TO WIN FIRST RING IN FOXWOODS MULTI-FLIGHT EVENT

Alex Jim Secures His Biggest Score to Date in the Foxwoods $600 Multi-Flight Event #2

Alex Jim has defeated 1,560 players in the Foxwoods $600 Multi-Flight Event #2 to take home $134,570, his first World Series of Poker Circuit ring, and 50 points in the race for Foxwoods Casino Champion.

Jim has had a lot of success in recent years, playing mostly here on the East Coast and in Las Vegas, but this score at Foxwoods has more than doubled his lifetime earnings, and ensured his rank among the top earners here in Mashantucket.

When asked how Jim feels about winning he had this to say, "I've been grinding hard for a few years now, mostly online. I started transitioning to playing a lot more live poker as of recently and it's nice to finally close one out and get a nice result and decent score after getting close so many times."

Jim plans to capitalize on his early-series success by playing additional events in hopes to secure the title of Foxwoods Casino Champion and earn himself a seat into the Global Casino Championship bracelet event at the end of the Circuit season.
