MO NUWWARAH WINS 1ST WSOP CIRCUIT RING IN HAMMOND

After a three-hour heads up battle Mo Nuwwarah wins his first ring on his birthday, with five minutes to spare.

Mo Nuwwarah, hailing from Omaha NE, has just won Event 7: $600 H.O.R.S.E., earning his first career WSOP Circuit ring and $14,008. Nuwwarah, a member of poker media, came into the final table as the chip leader but it wasn't an easy road to victory. Nuwwarah endured three hours of heads up play against Michael Hanson.

"It was a long battle, it was back and forth. I was down to nine bets, then he was down to five bets then he came back. It's limit poker you just have to go through the swings." Nuwwarah says he prefers played mixed games over Texas Hold'em. "I like the all of the Stud games, not a fan of Omaha 8 or Better but thats what I won in, so I like it more now"

Nuwwarah, turned 32 years old today and celebrated his birthday in victorious fashion. At the start of heads up play around 9:00 PM Hanson joked that he needed to stick around until after midnight to outlast the "birthday run good". Nuwwarah made it with five minutes to spare as the final hand ended at 11:55 PM.

When asked what his plans for the ring itself are he said that he was going to give it to his mother.
