CHRISTOPHER CAREY WINS THIRD CAREER CIRCUIT RING

Durham, NC pro Carey wins $10,791 in Event #12 at Circuit IP Biloxi

Regional Circuit regular Christopher Carey has claimed the third WSOP Circuit gold ring of his career, topping a 109-entrant field to win Event #12, $400 No-Limit Hold'em (1 Day) at Circuit IP Biloxi. The win was also worth $10,791.

Carey's first two Circuit triumphs came in similar events held at the popular Harrah's Cherokee Circuit stop, which he considers his poker home. "Now I like Mississippi," he joked with one of the WSOP's tournament directors immediately after sealing the win.

For Carey, 32, the extra cash infusion comes at a great time. He and his girlfriend, Kim Scott, are expecting their first child early in 2019, and now all those newborn-related expenses are even less of a financial burden. "1 Baby OTW!!" Carey had written on his official Circuit Final Table bio. He and Kim might not name the baby "Mississippi", but there'll be a fond memory associated with his newly more-favorite state nonetheless.
