Cosmin Joldis Wins His First Circuit Ring

Cosmin Joldis wins a Circuit ring and takes the lead in the Planet Hollywood Casino Championship.

Cosmin Joldis has outlasted a 137-player field in Event #5: $600 Double Stack No-Limit Hold'em at the Planet Hollywood Circuit series to earn his first career WSOP Circuit ring and the top prize of $19,758. This marked the second final table of the series for the Romanian poker player who now has the lead in the Casino Championship race with just over half of the point-awarding events remaining.

Joldis, a 28-year-old from Romania is friends with all-time Circuit ring winner Valentin Vornicu, who has roots in Romania. As it stands now, Joldis is 11 Circuit rings behind the leader, but that might bounce back to 12 before the end of the night, because Vornicu has found himself deep in another WSOP Circuit event.

Joldis broke onto the World Series of Poker scene at the 2017 WSOP at the Rio. Joldis had a monster series cashing for over $225,000 including making a deep run in the $10,000 Main Event. Joldis finished in 50th place out of 7,221 runners for $145,733. This cash marked Joldis' 15th career WSOP cash, six which are Circuit cashes, and pushes his career WSOP tournament earnings all the way up to $345,589.

As previously mentioned, this victory gave Joldis a firm lead in the Planet Hollywood Casino Championship. Joldis has now has 77.5 points for finishing 4th in Event #3 and first in this tournament. Joldis will play the Main Event this weekend to try to pad his lead. If he can hold his lead and win the Casino Championship, Joldis will win a free seat to the $1 Million Guaranteed 2019 Global Casino Championship.
