Perkins takes home $20,374 along with first WSOP Circuit ring

Richard Perkins has just earned his first WSOP Circuit ring, along with the biggest score of his poker resume. He defeated 252 players to claim the the top prize of $20,374. "I feel fantastic. It's cheesy but I'd rather have the ring than the money, it's kind of cool. It's also my biggest score by far."

The 52-year-old poker player was modest in describing his win: "You know, it's all luck, so you gotta get your cards when you get them and anything could happen. I just got lucky".
