NOLAN BURTON WINS HIS SECOND CIRCUIT RING

Burton takes home $19,719 and his second WSOP Circuit ring

Nolan Burton took down his first ring in 2013 at IP Biloxi. Six years later, he finally added another one to his collection by winning Event #4 at Horseshoe Tunica after outlasting a field of 239 competitors.

"It feels great to finally get my second ring. Maybe I was in my own way," commented Burton jokingly.

Burton is a regular at the Circuit but hasn't been doing much traveling lately. He does not plan to chase the casino championship but has another goal in mind.

"I'm not gonna chase it. I've been in that chase, and made that chase before, but I'm not gonna chase it this time. It's a bunch of tough players. I'm going to ship the main though," he concluded smiling.

For his victory, Burton collects $19,719 along with his second ring.
