REGINA HAM WINS FIRST CIRCUIT RING IN EVENT #11

Regina Ham, who recently started playing often, just won her first circuit ring and her biggest WSOP cash after topping a field of 223 players in Event #11: $400 No-Limit Hold'em. She defeated two-time ring winner Cary Marshall heads up, to claim the winner title.

"It was fun. Really a lot of fun. I just recently started playing more. Sometime this summer, we started traveling to play."

She gives credit to her husband, Mack Ham, for teaching her the game.

"He taught me. He played when we first met and then he taught me how to play."

According to Regina, everything was going her way for most the tournament.

"It was pretty smooth most of the time. I feel like I got a lot of cards and I made a lot of really good hands, and then I made some risky calls that just happened to work out in my favor."

Ham will be taking home $18,399 for her first-place finish along with her Circuit ring.
