BRETT APTER WINS SIX MAX FOR 1ST GOLD RING

Relatively new grinder achieves Circuit milestone at Potawatomi.

Brett Apter achieved a World Series of Poker Circuit milestone Tuesday evening at Potawatomi by taking down Event #5: $400 No-Limit Hold'em 6-Handed. The 31-year-old, who is relatively new to the Circuit grind, topped a field of 177 entries to win the top purse of $16,356, 50 Casino Championship points, and a WSOP gold ring.

"Feels so good. I feel like I haven't played enough Circuits yet, but I really wanted one bad, so I'm excited," said Apter after his win.

The victory marks Apter's 15th cash on the Circuit tour, dating back to August of 2017. Apter's tournament poker routine began a few years ago, only after he completed the monumental task of founding his own business, DirectDermaCare.

"I was working like 60-70 hours a week all through college... and working non-stop on the business for the first six years after college," Apter explained. "Lately, I've had more time. Now that I've built it out and it's more efficient, I'm able to travel, and have fun, and pursue my biggest passion, which is poker."

After putting in his dues to create a fully-functioning e-commerce business, Apter decided to take on the world of cards and has already begun to make a name for himself. Apter now lays claim to nearly $150,000 in WSOP earnings and plans to continue his pursuit.

"I'm moving to Nashville... an area where I'll be traveling more for tournaments," Apter mentioned. "I was living in the D.C. area, so I was playing more cash, but I'm planning on playing a lot more [tournaments]."
