TRUNG PHAM TRIUMPHS IN BIG BLIND EVENT

Pham earns third career Circuit ring and $13,901 in Event #3 victory.

Circuit regular Trung Pham has earned the third gold ring of his career by winning Event #3 at Hard Rock Tulsa, $400 No-Limit Hold'em Big Blind Ante. The win was worth $13,901, and as with his previous two Circuit rings, came at a stop at an Oklahoma venue.

Pham rode a hot Day 2 to a quick victory, which saw seven players reduced to a winner in a little over an hour's play. For Pham, though, there was more to it than the ring and the big payday; he's on the hunt for an automatic seat into this fall's Casino Championship, and the 50 points he earned for the win here gives him a vital boost. Pham arrived at Hard Rock Tulsa in 79th place, trying to make the race's top 50 spots, and he'll climb well up the ranks when his latest points are tallied in,

Pham had to persevere long enough to catch his event-ending rush. Though he was in or near the lead for much of the late stages of the tournament, he still needed to weather a couple of hours of dead cards late on Day 1. "You just have to keep fighting and fighting," he said, "and that's what I did."
