MICHAEL CARTER TAKES DOWN MULTI-FLIGHT TITLE

OKC's Carter earns first career Circuit ring and $86,000 in big-field triumph

Oklahoma City's Michael Carter wasn't even planning to play in the multi-flight event at Circuit Hard Rock Tulsa, Event #3: No-Limit Hold'em Multi-Flight ($500,000 Guaranteed). However, after acting on a whim and convincing his wife Amanda to come along and do some Tulsa-area shopping, Carter is $86,000 richer.

The 33-year-old Carter, who is also the father of three, is a full-time realtor and part-time poker player who's cashed in a handful of previous brand-name events. However, he'd never been in the position of being at the final table of a major tourney with big six-figure payouts on the line.

It turned out all right: Carter found a couple of good hands at big moments to take the lead roughly halfway through Event #3's final table, then successfully wielded his big stack to pad that lead all the way to the title. Displaying a strong focus and a willingness to grind down his shorter-stacked foes, Carter played a strong, experienced game, eventually claiming the win.
