DAVID AVINA EARNS RING IN DOUBLE-STACK EVENT

Avina's Event #8 win worth $23,602 and first career gold Circuit ring.

Murrieta, CA's David Avina has earned $23,602 and the first Circuit ring of his career by winning Event #8 at Circuit Hard Rock Tulsa, $400 No-Limit Hold'em Double Stack.

Avina, a veteran cash-game player both live and online, plays as much poker as possible while also owning and operating his own painting-and-drywall business. This caused some difficulties in Tulsa, when he had to rebook his return flight home after he emerged from Day 1 play with the chip lead. Avina told the WSOP, "I have a painting and drywall business and I have a customer who's not happy; I told him I'd do some work this weekend." His customer might be a little more forgiving once he finds out the reason why.

"'Amazing' is the only way I can describe it," he said, about winning his first career ring. "I've been playing poker for a long time; it [a ring] has eluded me for a while. I've made three or four final tables so it's nice to finally win one."
