DAVID DIBERNARDI WINS MULTI-FLIGHT EVENT #2

Tampa Bay-area poker pro earns $88,842 and first career Circuit ring

David DiBernardi has captured the first major tournament title of his poker career by winning Event #2 at Circuit Coconut Creek, $400 No-Limit Hold'em Multi-Flight. Bernardi led for most of the final table in this event, ultimately collecting $88,842 in this big-blind-ante event.

DiBernardi has already logged nearly two dozen cashes in Circuit events and also made it into the money in last year's WSOP Main Event. That's not bad at all for a 25-year-old pro, yet DiBernardi had clearly been searching for more. He moved from Ohio to Florida at the age of 19 to pursue a full-time poker career, and though he's made a living at the game, he'd yet to record a single score this big.

That changed on Sunday, and it also served as an early birthday present for DiBernardi, who turns 26 on Tuesday and wasn't sure what he'd treat himself to besides "a nice steak dinner." He'll be able to afford many such meals in the future.
