ELIEZER GONZALEZ LAUNCHES GOLDEN COMEBACK

42-year-old Coast Guard serviceman wins first Circuit ring, $11,300 in Event #3 win

Good skill and good fortune can equal a gold Circuit ring, as Connecticut native Eliezer Gonzalez can attest. The 42-year-old Coast Guard serviceman, now a Miami-area resident, captured the first major title of his poker career in winning Event #4 at Circuit Coconut Creek, $250 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo (1 Day). The $11,300 payday was Gonzalez's largest to date.

The big score was also a longshot to occur. Gonzalez found himself on the brink of elimination a handful of spots outside the Event #3 money bubble. He was down to less than a single big blind when he found a pair of kings and more than quintupled up. He found kings again, won again, and the rush was on, all the way to the win. Eliezer even managed to survive getting all his chips in not once, but twice, yet flopped a set in both hands late at the final table.

Gonzalez, who plays quite a few poker tournaments in the region, had no specific plans for his bankroll boost, except to play a few more events, starting again tomorrow at Coconut Creek.
