KAMMAR ANDRIES WINS ONE "FOR IZZY"

Last February's Main Event winner earns second career ring and $16,131 in Event #5

Kammar Andries, who won the Main Event at Circuit Coconut Creek in February 2018, struck gold again almost exactly one year later, in winning Event #5, $400 No-Limit Hold'em Turbo. The win was worth $16,131, along with that second career Circuit ring, and came only after an Andries blunder at the final table cost him roughly half of his event-leading stack.

Andries survived that rough spot on his way to the win, with both of his Circuit triumphs coming at this south Florida venue. Yet there was something else this win had in common with last year's win. In 2018, a good friend had sent a video of his young daughter, Izzy, to Andries, who when not playing poker, works as a physical therapist at an Orlando hospital. The video came with the instructions, "Good luck, win some money, and go all in." Andries followed that formula well in 2018. Sadly, Izzy passed away in December, and the memory and good-luck video were on Andries' mind this time as well. He replayed the video when he made this final table, and afterward, said the win was "for Izzy."
